The goods made of polyethylene are widely used in our mode of life. Their negative impact is seen in many areas of environment. According to the laboratory held researches polyethylene wastes can be used as a raw material in oil industry. As a result of experience one can suggest such a closed schedule:

!Diagram